

Springbank Minor Hockey Privacy Policy

Springbank Minor Hockey Association (SMHA) is committed to respecting and protecting the privacy of our Member Partners, their Associations, individual members, their families, and our employees. The information collected during registration is used to enroll the individual in the applicable program and may be used to provide members with the information necessary for the administration of the program. As well, it is used to administer the rules, regulations, and by-laws of SMHA and/or its affiliations, including Hockey Calgary, Hockey Alberta, and Hockey Canada

SMHA will share the name, address, and contact information provided during the registration process with Springbank Park For All Seasons (SPFAS). SPFAS will respect and retain the confidentiality of this information by using it for very limited purposes, as well as by not distributing it to other parties.

SPFAS will only utilize this information to:

1. Substantiate & reconcile participant and registration numbers to the annual collection of the Facility Access Fee.
2. Record registrants as SPFAS members (which is particularly valuable for applying for grants and other funding, as well as for complying with SPFAS bylaws)
3. Retain an email database that will be used infrequently to send messages pertaining to SPFAS activities and events (i.e. Fall Fair activity updates, emergency and/or weather-related facility closures, information pertaining to new special events to be held at SPFAS, etc.).

By registering with SMHA, you are agreeing to SMHA sharing your information with SPFAS solely for the purposes outlined above.

To obtain additional information with regards to SPFAS's use of your information, please contact SPFAS via email at: springbankpark@springbank.ab.ca
